EXPERIENCE

2017 Mahbaan

Junior Full-Stack Developer

Mahban startup operated in the field of insurance training and sales.

My task was to create user management panels and smart sites to calculate insurance prices.

2020 Freelancer

Junior Back-end Developer

I think every successful programmer has been a freelancer for a period of their career. I also decided to work as a freelancer for a while to have more useful time to learn and more power in choice.

2020 Holding Jihaat

Back-end Developer

It was the first time in Jihaat that I experienced working in a professional team.

Jihaat is working in the field of advertising and branding for businesses.

My job was to design and create the API for the Front-end team.
